

News from Invigour Limited

Invigour are pleased to announce that Peter Rees Steer has been selected to lead Birmingham's Business and Professional Services organisation, Birmingham Forward.

Peter will continue as a Director of Invigour helping our clients across all levels of business and property performance.

Peter's appointment as the new Chief Executive of Birmingham Forward, the not-for profit membership organisation, means he will work with Forward's Board of Directors to promote Birmingham as an ideal place to do business.

This part-time role will enable Peter to be a key player in the future developments and regeneration of the West Midlands region and raise the profile of Invigour to the wider business community.

Our congratulations go to Peter.
